

BHASKAR CHATRATH

House No. E. P. 310, In Side Sadian Gate, Jullundur City.

Slim, despite his best efforts becoming a "Pehlwan," Bhaskar is an affable companion. He nurtures his moustaches with great gusto. A very studious person, though examination results generally don't favour him.

PGI is one of his regular haunts. Deserves a prize for the best "Bathroom Singer."

Hobbies :- Tel malish, coupled with weight lifting & exercise.

A keen player of badminton & carrom.

CHAMAN LAL KHURANA

c/o Ram Chand Khurana, Q-Block Q, No. 78 Hakikai Nagar, Saharanpur (U. P.)

Chaman Lal can't sit still at all. Gives no rest to his legs. Can be recognised from a distance by his lumpy gait. Very talkative, he is the chairman of all gossip sessions. Probably that is the reason his vocal chords are over stretched. Otherwise he is very co-operative and has good organizational ability.

GOBIND RAM MEHTA

s/o Sh. Vishanda Ram Mehta, 310/3, Krishana Colony, Bhiwani (Haryana)

Short and bespectacled, Gobind is a sober faced individual, which is a true representation of his nature. A man, whom any one can bank upon in time of need, he is a very sincere friend.

Doesn't believe in making use of punctuation marks in his speech.

Extra curricular activities and games do not have much significance for him, but can be seen off & on tossing the shuttle cock at the badminton courts.

GURCHARAN SINGH

Shri Karnail Singh, Village-Nagla P. O. Korwa, Khurd Distt, Jalandhar (Haryana).

Tough & sturdy Gurcharan looks a typical villager with his "Tehna" m. Though, for most of the time, a good natured person, it doesn't take him time to get annoyed.

Getting up in the morning to attend classes has always been an ordeal for this night bird.

Famous for 'topo'-ing text books at super-sonic speeds while listening to his radio.

He is a good volley ball player, but is too lazy to go for net practice.

JAGDISH KUMAR JAIN

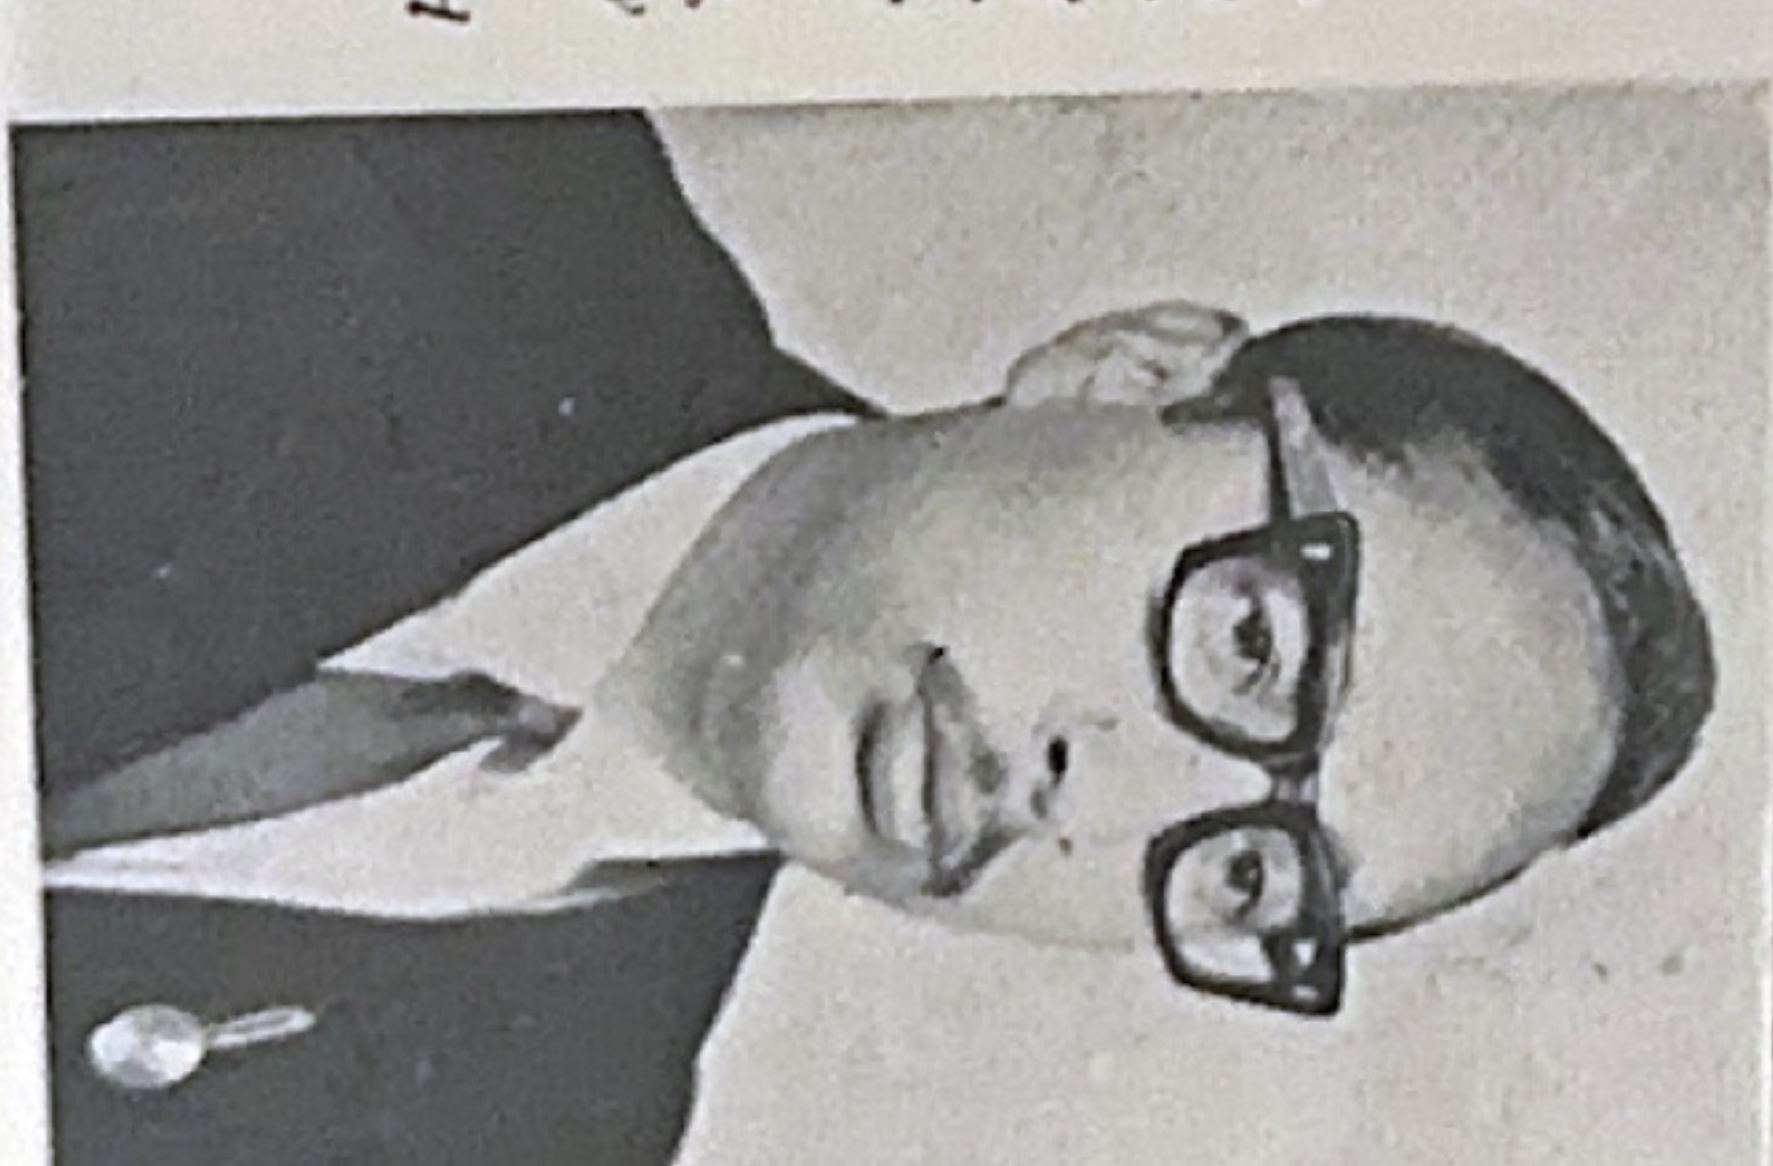

Ms. Puran Chand Ram Sarup Jain, Kathal Mandi.

Always smiling and content (the concentrated load at his centre shows that—) Jagdish is a firm believer in the dictum of non violence and perfect diplomacy. The country has lost a capable politician by his joining the Engineering profession.

Has unshakable faith in the R.S.S. and be it rain, hail, or sun, the daily evening meeting is a must for him.

Very fond of reading historical and social novels.

A member of the college executive.

HAWA SINGH KHATAK

Village Khantrai, P. O. Butana, Distt. Rohtak (Haryana)

Though slim and weak looking, Hawa Singh is a reservoir of man power. A very reserved person. He keeps out of all "politics" and believes in Punch-Sheel. Willingly extends his co-operation when and where necessary.

Has a typical Haryanvi accent in his speech, irrespective of the language he is speaking.

A deft Kabaddi player. Has recently acquired inclination towards weight lifting.

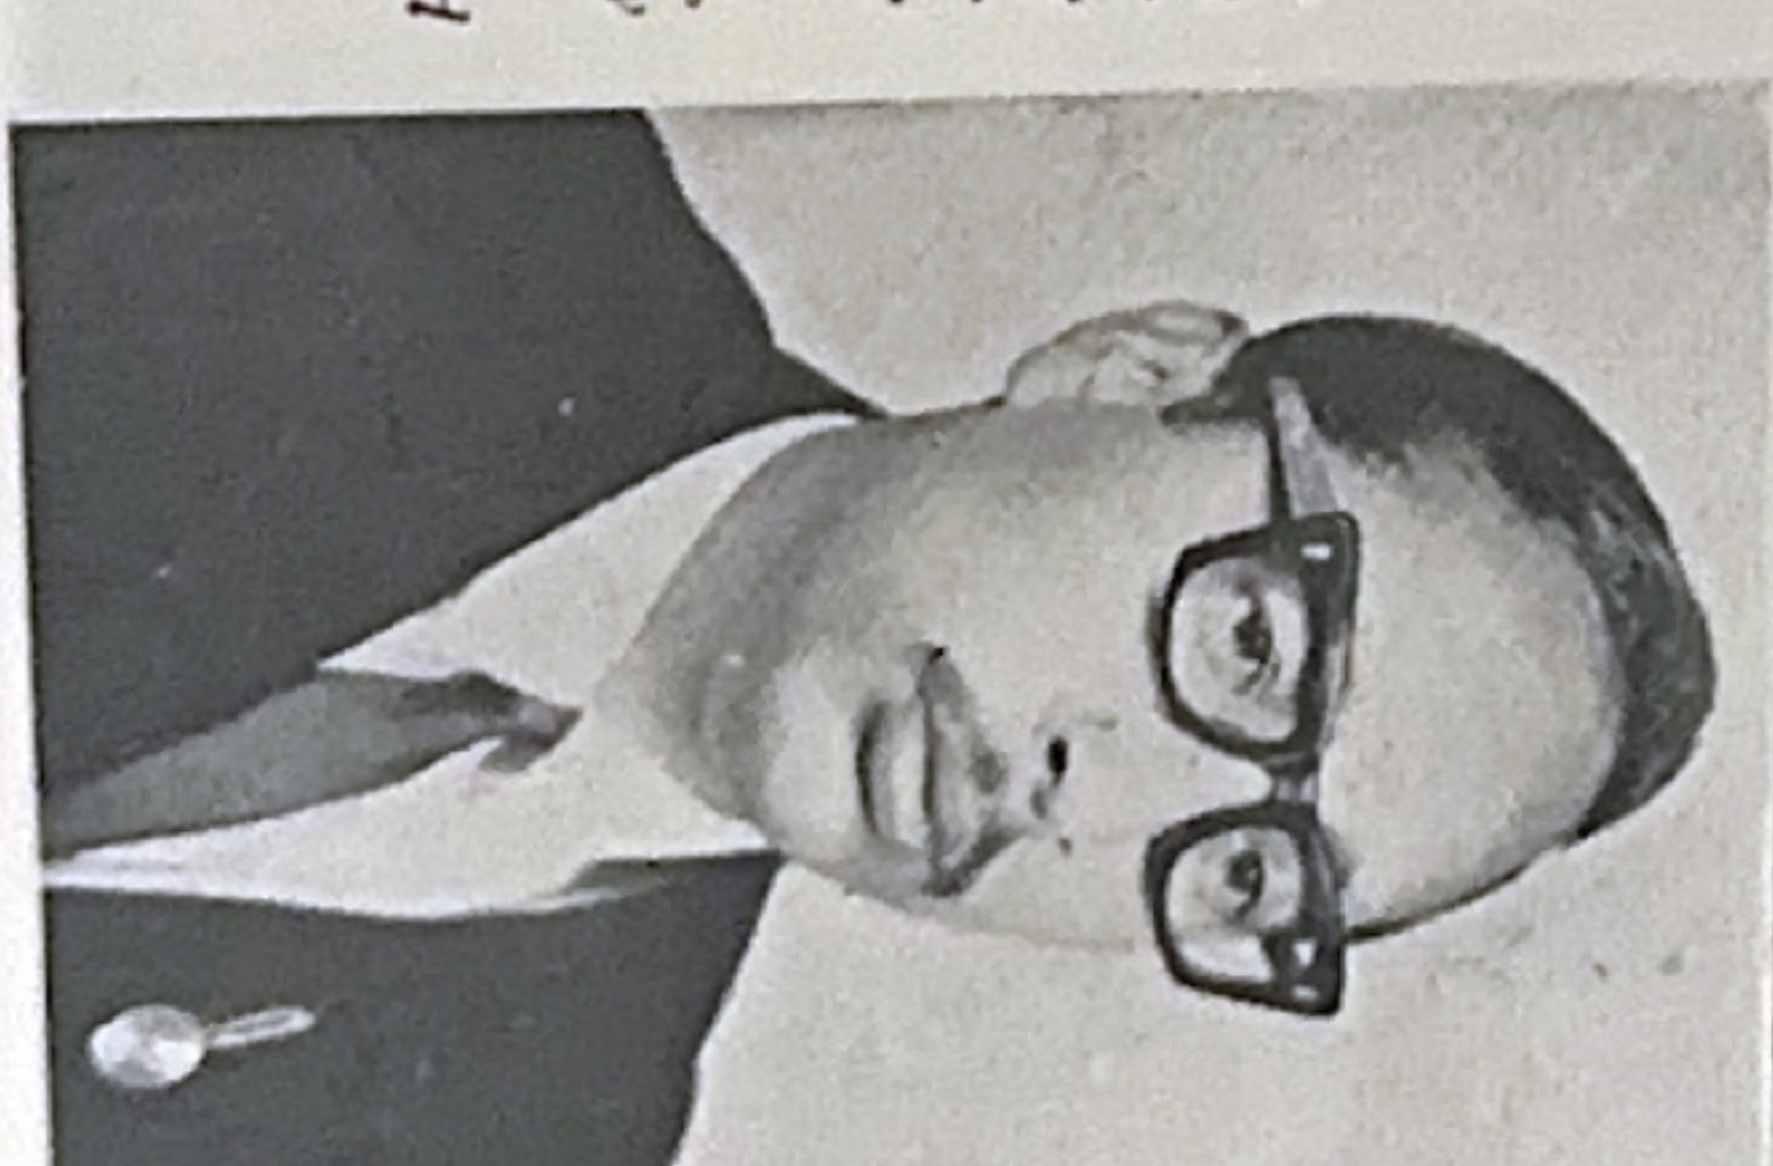

KASTURI LAL MAHAJAN

s/o Sh. Gopi Dhari, Street-Sarajan, Dinanagar (Gurdaspur) Pb.

Short but stocky, Kasturi is the "pocket edition" of the class. A friend of all and foe of none. He is most happy when left entirely to himself. Believes in tickless travel.

They say, that if you want to see the real smart Kasturi, see him in the evenings in Sector 14, and never when he is going to college.

An ardent admirer of the actress Sushma.

Intelligent Sharma is complementary part of "laughing pair." Believes that laughter will help him put on weight. Frail as he is, cautions all to talk to him from a distance of ten yards. Always sticks to his own ideas. Creeping melodies, light exercise and soft words are all he is made of.

Interested in palmistry and Psychology.

KESAV RAI SONI

c/o Sh. Devi Dass, House No. 2760, Bedan Para, Gali No-22, Ajmal Khan Road, New Delhi.

Popularly known as "Dr. Soni," Keshav carries a scholarly look about himself (and is, really one). Libraries are his second home. Always takes a philosopher's approach to life. Fond of reading good literature.

He believes in seeing only English movies but only when books allow him.

Weakness :—Tomato Sauce (addicted).

Hobbies :—(all recently acquired) Shallow water Swimming.

MOTI RAM BANSAL

s/o Sh. Bhagat Ram Jind Mandi Ditta, Jind (Haryana).

Rather circular in cross section, Moti is a typical "Lala." He is always in a hurry to do things—he is going down to the mess, or doing his job, mission work.

Outdoor games mean nothing to him. Fond of reading Hindi novels. A seasoned hand at all cards game, which constitute his major pastime.

RAMAN KUMAR AGGARWAL

Sh. Badri Nath Aggarwal, c/o Sh. Dhakki, V. & P. O. Kalanaur Mohalla, Dhakki, V. & P. O. UNADistt. Gurdaspur.

Serile "Raman" amuses his friends by his typical "Jaka-talks." Has a wealth of nick names to his credit. A very hard worker.

True to his caste, he is an ideal accountant, and was the treasurer during the long tour. "Rasgollas" are his pet sweet dish.

He was bitten by the 'cricket bug' when the Kiwis visited India in 1969. Otherwise he is a keen swimmer. (He learnt it the hard way when he was a child).

RAMESHWAR DASS ANGRA

M/s Charan Dass Bhagat Ram, Tehsil wala Bazar, V. & P. O. UNADistt. Kangra (H.P.).

Popularly known as "Master Angra" amongst his fellows because of his age and his two years of teaching experience prior to his taking up the Engineering profession.

A very studious person, firmly believes in the companionship of books. Games are out of place in his curriculum.

Has a broad and optimistic outlook towards life.

PARAM AJIT SINGH

c/o S. Amolak Singh, 9/63 Patel Nagar, Saharanpur (U.P.).

Leanly built and thickly bearded Paramjit is more commonly known as "Dhilla Singh." He is a man of strictly religious disposition.

Though quite an amiable and hospitable person, his temper betrays him quite frequently. Has a tremendous capacity for studies and is very secretive.

Claims to have a keen interest in billiards, badminton & cricket.

RAJ KUMAR SHARMA

84/6 Kucha Roop Chand Bazar, No Singh Dass Amritsar.

Medium statured, sporting a bold brush moustache, Sharma has an air of confidence about himself.

Of a slightly malicious temperament. Though witty, he can not tolerate any anti-feelings.

Fond of reading novels, and books on palmistry. Interested in reading Urdu couplets.

A good table tennis player.

ROSHAN LAL AGGARWAL

Sh. Vas Dev Aggarwal, Kotwali Road Sant Nagar, Charanjit Pura, Jullundur City.

Roshan's mess experience will be a great asset to his wife. He has a typical laughter consisting of frequency & pulse modulated sound waves.

Has a multitude of friendly contacts and most of his time is spent in "Courtsey calls."

He made best use of the long tour for a hectic shopping spree.

Has varied interests like badminton, boating and photography.

SATINDER MOHAN SINGH

c/o S. Jogindar Singh, House No. 529, Sector 8-B, Chandigarh.

S. M. is a sporting fellow, always willing to co-operate in whatever he is asked to do. The only person in class who has found great favour with staff members because of the numerous irrelevant questions he puts.

Famous for his unending list of coustons. Dreams a lot about his "Delhi-wali."

He is a passionate reader of western novels, fishing & hunting.

Was a member of college swimming team, is a good cricketer and T.T. player. Was tour Secretary during long & short tours.

TEJINDER SINGH KAINTH
H. No. 2358, Ram Bagh Road, Ambala Cantt.

Tejinder is a kindly disposed and noble person. A friendly and calm sort of a chap, his time is mostly devoted to books or to the library. "If you can't trace a book in the library, then find it with Tejinder" is a famous saying in class.

Specialist in making 'parothas'. He has an interest in social novels, and dramas. A good hockey player.

SATISH CHANDER SOOD
Amir Chand Building, Nai Abadi, Hoshiarpur (Pb.)

The "beautiful" of the class, Satish has a romantic bent of mind, and is very popular with the fair sex. An extremely sensitive person, his body is very susceptible to peculiar types of pains.

Is extremely fond of instrumental music and spends most of his spare time playing the mandoline and mouth organ.

"Rock music gets him rocking."

Games :—Cricket. Was chosen best cadet in the N. C. C. Camp held in December 1966.

SRI RAM RAI
s/o Shri Piara Ram Rai, V. Nathwal, P.O. Sarhali Distt. Jullundur, Punjab

Robust and energetic, compromising and charming. Rai commands an impressive personality. Has a unique accent. A loyal person of Yoga, he can miss breakfast but not his morning walk and exercise. Interested in psychology, and has a taste for good literature.

Games :—Volleyball and chess.

YASH PAL NAGPAL
s/o Sh. Ghansham Dass Nagpal, Sarai Guchki Railway Road Kailhal (Haryana)

Serious, tough and conservative Nagpal has a mature outlook towards life. Studies are his greatest passion. Patriotism and loyalty are a part of his blood.

Very fond of reading revolutionary novels—the source of his inspiration.

SUDERSHAN KUMAR
House No 5309, St. No. 29, Mehar Pura Amritsar (Punjab)

To most of the boys Sudershan is a closed book. But he is a hard working, frank and fearless person. Books take up much of his time. Keeps a 'watchful' eye on every ones movements. He is popular as 200% because of the "Shurti" content of his statements. His pet haunt is Sector 23.

Voracious reader of novels. Claims to be interested in collecting photographs and playing badminton.

VIRENDER DAMAR
House No. 323, Sector 20-A, Chandigarh.

"Six footer Damar resembles a tower." He also belongs to the group of day scholars, most of whose time goes to scholastics. Always in a hurry to do, or get things done, he can always be seen on the move.

Though a resident of Chandigarh, yet he considers his evenings incomplete without a round of sector 22.

Games :—Member of the basket ball team, and a very good table tennis and cricket player.

SHANKER DEV CHOUDHARY

House No. B-23/R, New colony, Palwal
(Distt. Gurgaon) Haryana.

Smart & dashing, Shanker is very susceptible to personal criticism. His mind works like a computer as far as passing comments is concerned.

Immaculately dressed, he is fond of going out every evening.

A shy & reserved person, believes in laughing economically, but wholeheartedly.

Games :—Volley ball, table tennis & cricket.

SUBHASH CHANDER SAKHUJA

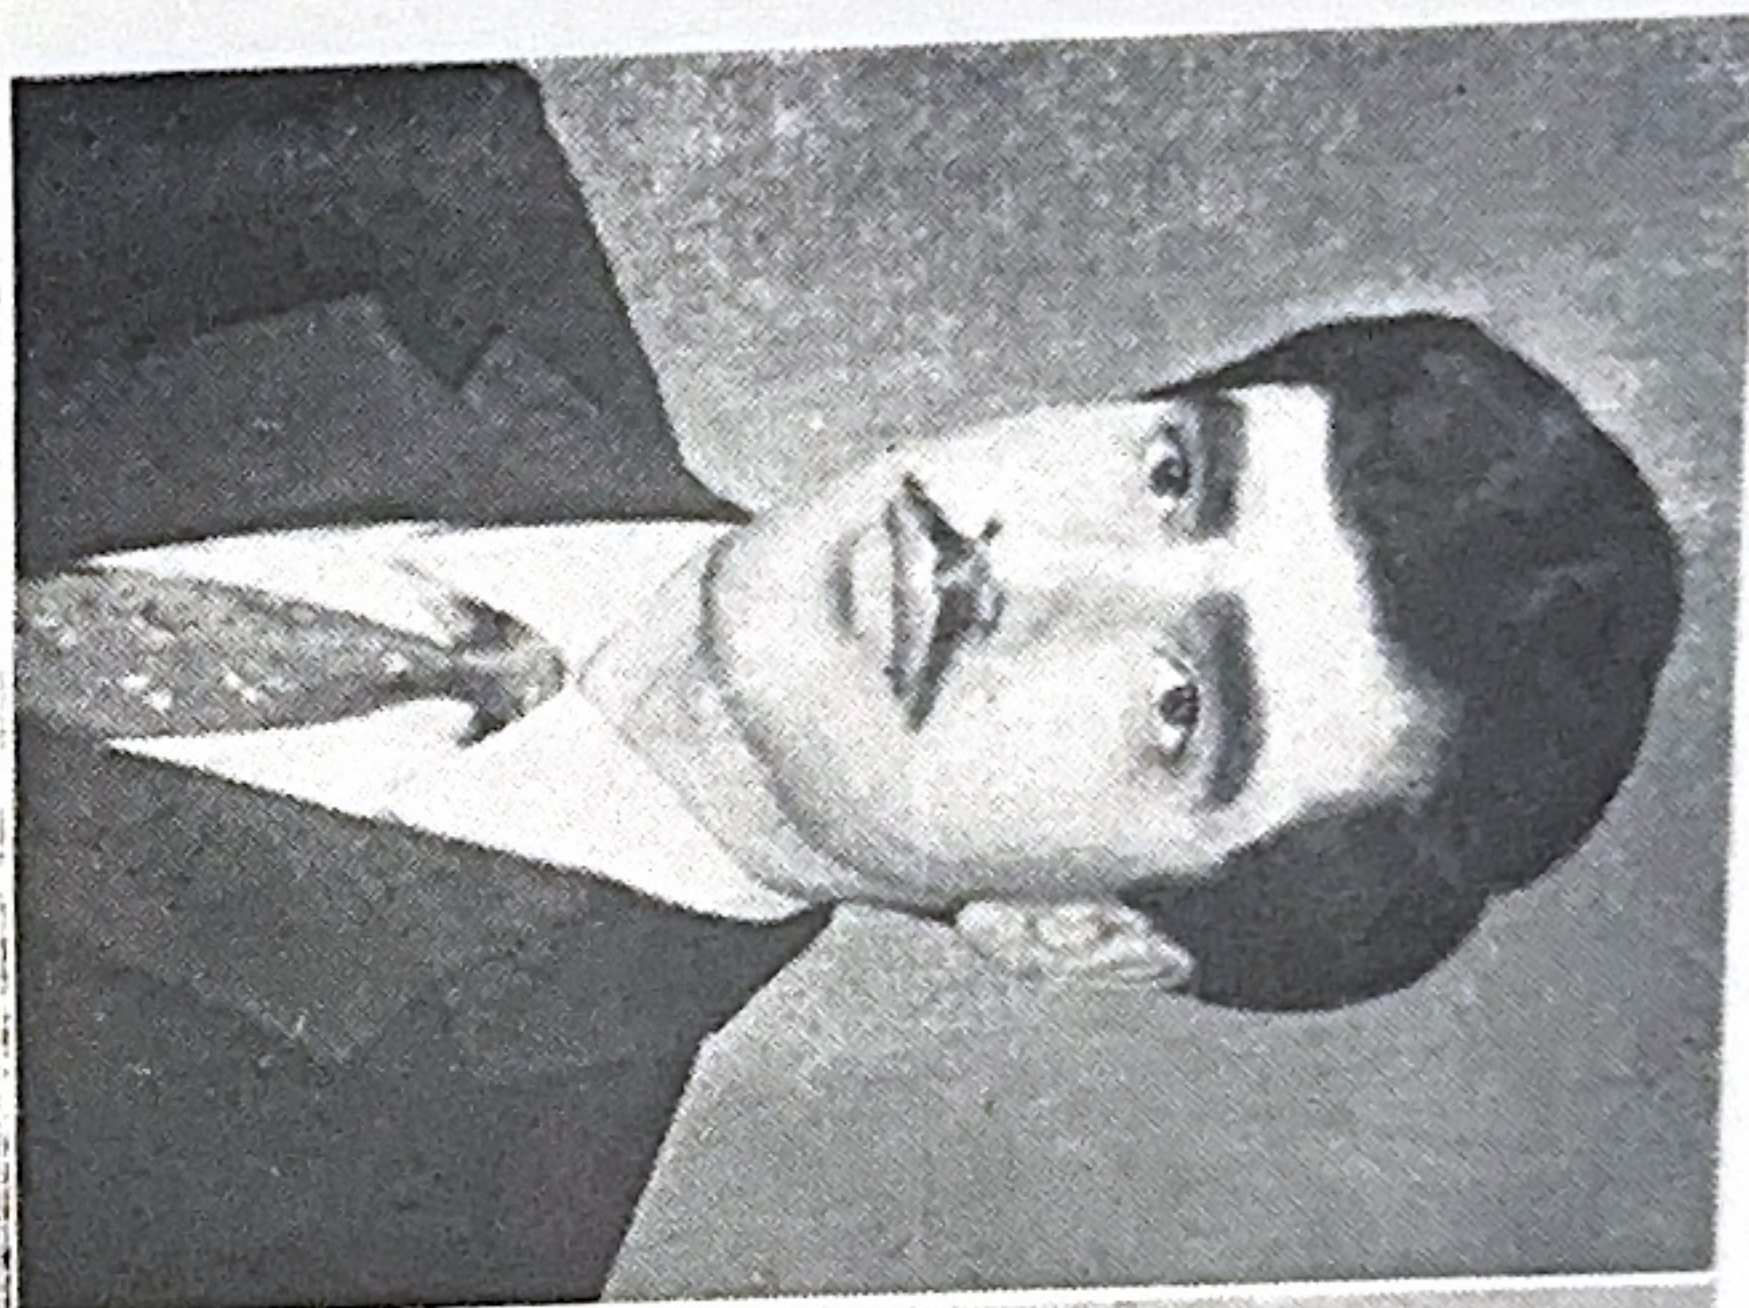

c/o Sh. Om Parkash Ji Sakhuja, H. No.
1936/1 Kt. Jainmal Singh Kuchia Vakilian
Amritsar.

Moody and emotional, Subhash is perhaps, the most intelligent student of the class. An encyclopedia of film songs, he has an undying love for music and nature. Ready company for any one at any time.

Studies are his pastime. Captain of the N. C. C. (Metallurgy Cricket Club).
